Object: European Network of Rambling Tourism and Intercultural Dialogue
Cuneo/Valloriate: October the 23rd, 24th, 25th, 2008

The Rete dei Comuni del Buon Cammino (Network of municipalities of good walk) is glad to invite you to the meeting: "European Network of Rambling Tourism and Intercultural Dialogue" that will take place in Cuneo district, Italy, on the 23rd, 24th and 25th of October.

The Rete del Buon Cammino is composed by nearly 70 local authorities, Italian and French for the most part. All these authorities are involved in the promotion of new forms of tourism very attentive to the natural and cultural features of different lands and territories.

Through this meeting the Net would like to involve in its project new European organizations, associations and municipalities that work in environmental and touristic fields. The aim of this common work is that of expanding on thematic of sustainable tourism and projecting activities in rural and mountain areas, particularly in those places that are not provided with ski-lift facilities.

These meeting days would like to be a starting point to encourage a reciprocal knowledge of the different experiences developed by all participants for what concerns rambling tourism in different countries (Italy, France, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Romania and Bulgaria). The aim of this project is that of creating a Net useful to exchange information and to organize common initiatives.

The meeting is structured in 3 days, following the detailed program:

For what concerns organizational aspects we communicate as follow:

- The organization takes in charge the accommodation costs in partner hotels for a maximum of 2 people for each non-Italian municipality/association. In order to participate is necessary to fill in the application form with all required data and send it until October the 9th 2008 to this e-mail address: cbc.cuneo@gmail.com
- Every partner should also send a short power point exposition of its own association or municipality to the e-mail address cbc.cuneo@gmail.com until October the 9th in order to allow the translation and the projection of the material during the meeting. The power point presentation should show all the activities carried out by the organization for what concerns tourism and sustainability and should be composed by a maximum of 15 pages and no more of 150 typefaces.
- The expositions during the meeting will be mostly in Italian and French, but there will be the possibility of translating power point presentations both in English and German. Interpreting and linguistic support in English and German will be available during the meeting of October the 24th.
- As the possibility of accommodation in partner hotels is restricted to a small number, the organization reserve to confirm the booking, following the order of arrival of the application forms.
