

CIPRA
LEBEN IN
DEN ALPEN

The International Commission for the Protection of the Alps (CIPRA) is a non-profit, non-governmental umbrella organization with representations in seven Alpine countries. CIPRA works on a scientific basis, using diverse communication, political advocacy, and practical projects to promote sustainable development. It advocates for the preservation of natural and cultural heritage, the strengthening of regional diversity, and joint solutions to cross-border challenges in the Alpine region.

Do you want to advance sustainable projects in the NGO sector with your acquisition and project experience as well as your network? Are you enthusiastic about traveling, culturally competent, and have the necessary financial and project management expertise? Then we look forward to getting to know you!

SENIOR PROJECT MANAGER

80-100%

PROFILE

You have several years of experience as a project manager in the NGO sector, with a proven track record in acquiring projects and funding outside of EU funding. You possess strong financial and project controlling skills. You can rely on an existing network with relevant contacts. You are a team player, take responsibility, are reliable, and work independently, able to set priorities and maintain an overview even in hectic situations. Additionally, you have a strong cultural competence in the Alpine region and are willing to travel and be flexible. You are fluent in German (working language) and also speak one or more main Alpine languages such as Italian, French, and Slovenian.

TASKS

Your responsibilities include: Independent acquisition, development, and management of projects; Strategic project implementation, including financial planning and budget responsibility; Fundraising; Building and maintaining networks with authorities, ministries, and relevant stakeholders, as well as project partners in all Alpine countries and beyond; Integrating sustainability aspects into all project phases; Travel activities within the scope of the projects.

WE OFFER

A responsible and diverse role in a dynamic and committed team, creative freedom in the development and implementation of projects, collaboration with relevant stakeholders, opportunities for professional development, attractive terms of employment and salary, as well as flexible working arrangements.

APPLICATION & INFORMATION

The workplace is Schaan in the Principality of Liechtenstein. Start date: from September 2026, fixed-term for 2 years with the possibility of extension/permanent employment.

Please send your digital application in German by email to: bewerbung@cipra.org by July 31, 2026, addressed to CIPRA International, Magdalena Holzer, Deputy Executive Director, Kirchstrasse 5, 9494 Schaan.

Interviews are expected to take place in August 2026.

www.cipra.org

