SUSTAINABLE MOBILITY IS OUR FUTURE

User- and environmentally friendly systems of public transport contribute essentially to sustainable development and are the key elements for preserving the settlement, the economic structure and the recreational activities in the alpine space. Therefore, the Alpine convention, by means of its Transport protocol, deals with this subject in detail, and the Permanent Secretariat is also very active in promoting and stimulating sustainable transport solutions. What underlines the relevance of this problem is the fact that the solving of the traffic issue in the Alps is among the key topics of the oncoming Macro-regional Strategy for the Alps.

After more than 20 years of activities, we are observing with pleasure that in the Alps, numerous projects in the field of stimulating sustainable mobility are being carried out. One of them is for sure the present booklet Timetables in the Alps, which is addressing this issue in a very concrete and useful way. I am especially glad that in six years of publishing, a significant increase of interest for the sustainable mobility has been noticed on both sides: among the users as well as providers. It is also very important to include the information about cross-border transport connections and to publish the booklet in two languages, Slovenian and English. In this way, the booklet will be used on a greater scale among the visitors of our mountains.

As Slovene, I am especially proud of such successful project at home, in Slovenia. I would like to really thank CIPRA Slovenia for the coordination in the preparation process of the booklet, and also to all long-time and new partners. The Alpine Association of Slovenia, Bled-Tourist Association, Institute for Tourism Preddvor, Kamnik Tourism and Sports Agency, Kärnten Bus GmbH, LTO Bovec, LTO- Kranjska Gora Tourist board, LTO Sotočje, Municipality of Tržič - TIC Tržič, Public Agency SPIRIT Slovenia, Public Agency SPOTUR Slovenj Gradec, Rinka Center, TIC Jezersko, TIC Radovljica, the Triglav National Park and Tourism Bohinj, THANK YOU!
